

I wanted to express how much peace my household has experienced since we requested to be placed on Indiana's No-Call list. Before doing this, we had to "screen" our calls and would never answer the phone. Please don't do away with the no-call list. I would hate to have solicitors invading my privacy once again.